Long term care:
Family support, professional care-work and social policies
Workshop, Paris, June 1\textsuperscript{st}-2\textsuperscript{nd} 2010
Ecole normale supérieure
48 Boulevard Jourdan
75014 Paris
Room A2 (Tuesday June 1\textsuperscript{st}), Room 6 (Wednesday June 2\textsuperscript{nd})

June 1\textsuperscript{st}, Room A2

2.00 pm Florence Weber (ENS-CMH), Moral obligation and care-work, the role of the State in France.

3.00 pm Carla Risseeuw (International Institute for Asian Studies, Leiden University), Ways of keeping company and everyday sociality: urban middle-class elderly in Sri-Lanka and the Netherlands.

4.00 pm Jingyue Xing (ENS), Caring for the elderly in times of routine and crisis: To restructure the household or to enter a retirement home

5.00 pm Paul Prunier (ENS), Home Care and Home Cure: the Medical Aspect

June 2\textsuperscript{nd}, Room 6

9.00 am Rajni Palriwala (Delhi University, India), Childcare and elderly care in India and The Netherlands: Internal and cross-cultural comparisons

10.00 am Pascal Mulet (ENS-EHESS), Evaluating the Needs of the Dependent Elderly: the Organization of Work in a French Department

11.00 am Pierre Deffontaines (ENS), The Role of Management between Paid Care-givers and Care-receivers in France: an industrial fiction?

12.00 am Pauline Blum (ENS), Charles Mercier (ENS), Paid Care-Givers in France: a Quantitative Outlook of a Care Job

The workshop is proposed within the program of the European Studies Program (funded by the European Commission) of Delhi University, Department of Sociology. Talks and discussions will be in English.